BETTER MANAGEMENT EXPECTED.

Ex-Home Secretary Sarrien Mentioned as the Probable New Man in the Ministry, but He Is Reported to Have Declined.

Paris, March 28.-The resignation of the Foreign Secretary of France burst like a Chamber. bomb in Parliamentary circles.

It is officially stated that M. Berthelot his colleagues in the Cabinet, since the incident of the Secretary's official note concerning France's attitude toward the Egyptian campaign of Britain.

Since then everybody in the Parliamentary world knew that Berthelot no longer possessed the confidence of the other Minis-

To-night it is rumored that the resignation is entirely due to the influence of Russia. It is needless to add that this is the real cause, as M. Morenheim, the Russian Ambassador, had a long conference with Berthelot yesterday.

It is learned on good authority that the
